INTERIM SESSIONS.

James Nicholas was tried before Judge Frazer, on Saturday afternoon for obtaining money by false pretences from Vanderwater & Vain. The evidence disclosed that there was a dispute account between the parties and accordingly a verdict of not guilty was rendered.

INCENDIARISM.

About midnight, on Saturday night, a daring attempt to burn the frame shed in rear of the National Hotel, nearly opposite the City Hall, was made. On a small pile of straw which laid against the side of the shed, oil was poured and the match applied. The blaze was quickly and put the fire out. Mr. Clarke says that before he observed the fire, he heard some one shouting about the yard and on the appearance of the blaze started running hurriedly west away. No clue.

Several, on the other hand, stated what evils might have been avoided if the rule had been observed. This was at a length stated and the decision of Conference was that the question need not be asked in the District Meeting.

There is a strong wish to close the Conference this week, but it is doubtful whether the pile of reports on the Secretary's table can be considered so that the benediction may be pronounced before next week.

DISCORD IN THE BONG.

Let us in the crowded temple,
While music fills the air,
And my soul is rapt in song,
O, the melody rich and rare!

I have seen youth's early promise
Faded with the years;
And my heart is full of pain,
As I think of those who were.

THE CITY MISSION.

The free tea treat given the children belonging to the day and Sabbath schools of this Mission on Friday evening, the 14th inst., was a very great success. One cannot help contrasting the present clean and happy appearance of the children. What it was a year or two ago, and the marked intelligence manifested in their answers to questions. Mrs. Massey, of Sidney, addressed them in a very telling and loving way, which attracted the attention of all present, and there were good parents and friends of the children there to witness the care and attention displayed in providing such a table load of good things such as children love. One cannot help but sincerely desire that all these benevolent people who so generously helped with their means to build up this Mission, were there present to witness what happens here but bestowed on a heretofore much neglected portion of the poor of Belleville, fulfilling the injunction, "If ye have the poor, the maimed, the halt and the blind, that my house may be filled."

SPORTING NOTES.

The yacht Isabelle returned home yesterday afternoon, from her western trip. In conversation with some members of her crew, we learned that when at Toronto, in the R. C. Y. C. race, she was not provided with a sufficient crew to secure her opponent, the Isabelle, started and went over the course alone.

Mr. James Stirling, who entered the Isabelle, put in a claim for the money, $5,000, as he, as yet, he had not been provided with a sufficient crew to secure her opponent, the Isabelle, started and went over the course alone.

In the T. Y. C. race, the Isabelle was delayed four minutes by the crew of her sailing master. Her competitor, the Isabelle, was sent away, and though the Isabelle boat sailed fast and caught her adversary, the Isabelle could not allow time to pass, and crossed the line 30 seconds ahead of the Isabelle.

The crew of the latter are very proud of their craft, which they virtually won the race by superior speed, and say that she is the fastest boat of her class on fresh water. In strong contrast with the action of the R. C. Y. C. on the T. Y. C. and the crew of the Isabelle, it is stated that although the Isabelle did not win anything, her crew were worthy of some consideration for having come so far and sailing so well.

The steam yacht Harvard, one of the fastest and fastest boats of her class that has visited these waters, arrived here last evening. She is under the command of her owner, Mr. J. J. Smith, of Utica, N. Y., and Miss Smith, his daughter and Miss Hamilton, of the same city, are on board. The party has been "down among the islands" and left here this morning for another brief stop in this locality. The ladies were greatly pleased with the scenery of the bay and anxious to enjoy their trip, and they will go to the Thousand Islands tonight.

The Isabelle has been provided with a new tugboat.

MONDAY, SEPT. 17.

THE LENOX ELECTION CASE.

The complete break down of the attempt of the Grits to fasten a charge of personal corruption upon Mr. Lenox in connection with his election to the Legislature, has apparently benefitted their organ (the Express) of its senses. In its comments on the evidence adduced at the trial, it indulges in a favorite amusement of the Grits, namely that of abusing and attributing partisanship to the Judge, simply because they could not consistently with their duty, take the Grit view of the case. The Express says:

From a report of the evidence we are enabled to form a correct opinion as to the merits of the case. It is plain that Justice Gage and O'Neil will pass over the infamous libel of the penny trumpeter of the Grit party in Lenox, as that individual has already a liberal share of abuse, but we are to indicate the dignity of the bench by punishing the rascally libeller as he deserves, it would have an excellent effect on his future conduct and on that of other Grit scribblers who might, unless restrained, pursue a similar course.

BELLEVILLE AND THE N. P.

Like Renoir, old, the Grits would have shown the country to go to smash, if only their predictions of ruin as a result of the N. P. would be verified. But the facts are adverse, as the country continues to prosper in spite of the free traders' prophecies of evil, and the active exertions of their party to counteract the benefits of the tariff. Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Blake delighted the Yankee audience by their denunciations of the Northwest and their landations of Texas and Kansas as homes for emigrants, the present leader of the Grits being no honored by the commercial advisers of Canada as he has his portrait adorn the title page of the emigration pamphlets which they scattered broadcast over Europe. Nor to be outdone by its leaders, the local organ of the "ruin and decay" party held up Belleville as an example of the evil wrought by the N. P., and dealing with great gusto the number of shops vacant on Front Street as evidence of the truth of its statements. We then stated that the depression here was due to the decay of the lumber trade, which had taken place since Mackenzie's regime, to the sagging of our trade by the opening of the Grand Junction, and to other causes of a temporary character. The organ refused to accept these statements, but time has brought its revenge. Belleville is again prosperous. The temporarily vacant shops are again being occupied; business is very brisk; the men employed in local industries have been largely increased in number, and some of them have been working night and day; the factories are full of orders; the value of real estate has taken a considerable jump, and houses are scarce and rents have increased materially. This pleasing state of affairs, the organ has been constrained to admit, inferentially, has been brought about by the N. P., to which it wrongly attributed the depression that formerly existed here. It is to the opening of the stone foundry that the organ attributes this happy change, thus ignoring the re-establishment of the pottery, the doubling of the capacity of Lanier's wooden mill, the establishment of the Brown & Wadkins agricultural implement works, and the knitting factory in its own building, the large increase in the saw factory, the furniture factories, the carriage and wagon factories, and in fact in nearly every branch of manufacture carried on here, all of which are direct results of the N. P. True, the stone foundry was an N. P. industry, but the necessity which arose for its enlargement and its consequent removal were directly caused by the N. P. We are glad to have this confession, half hearted though it may be, from the organ, as it indicates that it sometimes blunders into saying the truth in matters political—inferentially.

A Great Discovery.

This is the first time that the organ has been caught in a trap. It is the first time that the organ has been caught in a trap. It is the first time that the organ has been caught in a trap.

CONFERENCE SKETCHES.

REV. JAS. GARDNER, D. D.

Dr. Gardner is one of the oldest members of the delegation from the Methodist Episcopal Church. He has been in the country more than 40 years, and during most of the time he has been one of the most prominent Ministers, and always took an active part in all matters pertaining to the interests of the Church with which he is connected.

Dr. Gardner possesses great force of character and has often inspired his hearers by his eloquence in the pulpit.

His address of the M. E. Church esteem him very highly. He has been Secretary of Annual Conference, Secretary of the General Conference, Presiding Elder for several years, Editor of the Look, Agent, and also Missionary Secretary. His name has been brought forward more than once for the office of Bishop and he received a large vote at the time of Dr. Carson's election to the Episcopacy.

Dr. Gardner is the father of a family some of whose members have attained considerable distinction. His only son is Rev. Dr. H. H. Gardner, the only Agent and his daughters have graduated at Albert College; one has recently taken a high standing as an Undergraduate in Toronto.

Some five or six years ago a prize was offered for the best sermon on the Cross, and a daughter of Dr. Gardner's won the prize. The essay was published by James Campbell & Sons, under the title of "Jesus Christ," so that thus the descendants of the Doctor, like their father, are making their impress on society.

The M. E. Church esteems Dr. Gardner very highly, and justly so. Some 5 years ago Albert University conferred upon him the degree of D. D. L., the only honor degree granted in the history of the University. He has been sent as representative to the General Conference of the M. E. Church, United States, was representative of the Church to the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada, and was senior delegate to the Ecumenical Council in London.

As a debater Dr. Gardner is always ready and pointed. He is a fervent, ardent, and eloquent speaker, and he can make an opponent have an unenviable appearance. His knowledge of ecclesiastical questions is extensive, and his views generally may be regarded as correct. He will not doubt be a leader in the coming year.

It is not generally known to our readers that when Dr. Gardner was a boy he worked in a printing office in Belleville; so that he has become one of whom our citizens have had some to be ashamed.

Another son of an early Methodist Missionary. This gentleman's father was sent to Canada by the Wesleyan Missionary Society some after the year of 1812-15 and was one of the most popular Ministers at that time in the country.

The gentleman now before us was born at Three Rivers in the Province of Quebec, and like all children of literate men knew something about the inconveniences arising from the uneducated and ignorant.

Some such men have to endure. He had the advantage of a good education at King's College, Windsor, Nova Scotia. He received the Ministry in 1844, since which time his labors have been confined to the Maritime Provinces. He is now a good pastor among his brethren, who honored him with their confidence, for many years he was Chairman of Districts and President of the Conference in 1871. He was sent as a delegate to the General Conference of the M. E. Church in the United States in 1872 and attended the Union Committee that same year in Montreal, which brought about the Union of 1874, when the Methodist Ch. of Canada was founded. He was also President of the New Brunswick Conference in 1874.

He has been stationed in most of the best circuits in the east and is deservedly one of the best. He has delivered one of the Lectures of the Theological Union on the Immortality of the Soul. Age is now making its mark on his face. Lines of care are on his forehead, but he has a happy and contented expression, and he is a man of great worth.

A COMPLETE MILL

Gilmour & Co., Mill, at Trenton, is probably the finest mill in the Dominion, and their out of lumber this season has been something enormous. Running only a few days, the cut to Sep. 14th amounted to 45,000,000 feet.

To be given away free, besides the large engine and fire tank, Mr. Gilmour has procured a steam pump with a capacity of 1,300 gals. per minute. The yard is fully provided with piping and hose, always ready for use. A full company of 28 regularly drilled men are provided ready at any moment to work the fire apparatus, so that the mill and extensive yards are comparatively safe from the ravages of fire.

AN IMPORTANT DEBITION.

Judge Frazer this morning gave decision in the case of the Ontario and Quebec Railway, in certain residents of the Township of Hungerford.

The first line passed through the rear of the Township of Hungerford, and the residents of the village of Tread and surrounding country approached the Company with a proposition to give the right of way through the Township, provided the Railway would be located and built, this Railway Company agreed to do, and a subscription list was circulated, the said right of way.

The Railway having been constructed, a number of parties who had signed the document guaranteeing the purchase of the right of way, refused to pay the money. The result was a suit of unusual interest.

The judge held that all the parties who had signed the guarantee were liable. The judgment will be given at length in a future issue.

MIDLAND RAILWAY.

Express.....11.40 a.m.
Mixed.....12.30 a.m.
Fast Express.....6.10 p.m.
Local (Montreal).....6.40 a.m.entire line from St. Lawrence to the Pacific, lying wholly on the soil of the Dominion, will probably be completed within the next five years. It is probably the largest contract ever let by the Government, and the superiority of private enterprise over political in the construction of railways.Although the Canadian Pacific Railway will have its eastern terminus in Lower Canada, its chief importance lies in the fact that it will develop a vast territory west of Lake Superior, hitherto almost destitute of railway facilities. In that entire region, stretching from Ontario to the Pacific, and from the United States boundary to the Arctic Ocean, the present general railway mileage is less than 1,000 miles,
which almost wholly belongs to the Canadian Pacific, as follows:

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY IN OPERATION.

Main Line, Port Arthur to Calgary, 1,775
miles.
Quebec Section—Windsor to St. Vite,
100 miles.
Manitoba City—Windsor to St. Vite,
100 miles.
Saskatoon—Windsor to St. Vite, 100
miles.
Total, 1,975 miles.

The only other lines in this entire region are

Manitoba Southern Railway—Windsor to St. Vite, 100 miles.
Manitoba and Northwestern Railway—St. Vite
to St. Vite, 100 miles.
Prairie to Gladstone, 100 miles.

Of this total of 1,975 miles, all but 84

miles are owned by the Canadian Pacific Company; and the two short lines which form the exception will probably be long have the same ownership.The Canadian Pacific Company contemplices several long branches to be projected westward to Prince Albert, Battleford, Edmonton and other points in the North Saskatchewan region, and southward into the coal fields and cattle ranges toward the United States boundary, and the railway will continue to lead rather than follow civilization through the habitable portions of the vast North-West.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

The much-talked of Salvation Army
"quested fire" in the city yesterday, and the
"drew" as they say in the play bills, immense. The streets were thronged, and in the Metropolitan Hall there was not standing room left, so great was the crowd that gathered from curiosity to witness the form of procedure of this kind of revivification.
Leaving out the parade in uniform and the music, there was nothing in the procedure
yesterday at their meetings that differed materially from the old form of Methodist protracted meetings.Some object to the music on the street,
but whilst the parade of military companies to Church with bands of music is considered, so great harm can arise from a little music by this unique sect, when such music is part of their form, possibly not so much of worship as for attracting to their baracks, as they style their hall, those who would not otherwise enter any place of worship.The "Army" has been censured severely through the press of some other cities, but of course we cannot state what peculiar discrepancies may have led to such criticism.
Yet it is nevertheless true that the works of many so-called fanatics of other cities have brought forth abundant and blessed fruits to the present day, and so long as it efforts tend to morality and to no one will say that their procedure yesterday will tend to make men drunkards, thieves and generally—although many of their forms may be as absurd as measured by the orthodox religious standard of the present day, their form of procedure should not expose them
to any adverse criticism.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

The weekly statements of the earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway, says the temporary, show that the income fairly keeps pace with the increased mileage operated. This is rather remarkable in a new country. The mileage operated in the first month of September was 1,704 miles against 709 in the corresponding week of last year.
The earnings on the 1,704 miles in the week were $100,000, or at a rate of over $3,240
per mile, or at a rate of over $3,240 per mile. The earnings on the smaller mileage last year were $100,000, or at a rate of about $3,600 per mile. This is equal to the earnings of many completed American roads, and considering that the Canadian Pacific is as yet uncompleted to any of its important Western termini, the outlook is a very favorable one.The entire projected line of the Canadian Pacific from Calander to Port Moody is 2,922 miles, with branches bringing the total length up to 3,504 miles. The Railway is, in the course of an artery which the enterprise and energy of the Syndicate are highly extolled, says.The present condition of the main line, which is to run from Montreal to Port Moody on the Pacific, is a distance of 2,922 miles, is as follows, as we make it out from recent information obtained from official sources:

Mr. Monseau, accepted the leadership of the Liberal Conservative party in that province has been seriously engaged in bringing the province into harmony with the revenue, as the following return, just issued by Mr. G. D. Drolat, the Auditor-General will show. During the last six months, the revenue of $1,000,000 has been renewed, of which $85,000 has been obtained by reducing the expenses of the Civil Service and $71,000 in the administration of public works. It is probable that it is because of the economy that the Grits are giving Mr. Monseau so bitterly. The Grits can stand economy in the disbursement of public money, but not their surrendering of Sandfield Macdonald's carefully hoarded surplus, and Oatwistle's long series of deficits. Mr. Macdonald and his "mixer and muddle" being unable to restrain their indulgent propensities of their party.

Lennox Election Case.

Judgment was given by Messrs. Justice Gait and O'Brien in the case of the points reserved at the trial of the petition. Both judges gave written judgments, and held that the charges of treating by Wesley Brown were not proved, and that the treating on polling day by John Storms,
an agent of the respondent, in the blacksmith's shop at Ernestown, where a couple of quarts of whiskey were consumed by electors on both sides, and two in the Mayo, have been proved. Extra bottles of whiskey have been sent to these districts.

BELLEVILLE, THURSDAY, SEPT. 27.

IMMIGRATION AND COLONIZATION.

The report of the Commons Committee on Immigration and Colonization has been published. It is a most interesting and valuable document, full of valuable information as to the resources of our country. From the evidence of Mr. Lowe we learn that in 1882 reached the figure of 115,000, while in 1881 (which we considered a successful year) the number was only 47,991. In addition to those settling in Canada, 80,092 immigrant passengers went through Canada to their places of destination in the Western United States. This is a larger number than any recorded since 1863, and serves to show the growing popularity of the Canadian route, for through passengers to the western part of the continent. It was found that the property and effects brought into Canada by immigrants, and investors in the North-West, during the year, was not less than ten million dollars, apart altogether from the very numerous value of the Dominion at large of the immigrants themselves, as settlers and producers, and also as consumers of durable and home manufactured goods; thus stimulating at once manufacturing industry, and adding to the exchange and hence revenues of the country.

The total amount of expenditure by the Minister of Agriculture, to procure the valuable result, was during the year $346,257.4. In this sum is included the cost of all the permanent immigration establishments in Canada, the United Kingdom and the continent of Europe. The expenditure was larger than that of the previous year, the figure in 1881 being $270,180.81. The per capita of the immigration in 1882 was, however, only $3.08, being very much less than the cost in any previous year.

A specially noticeable feature in the operations of the past year was the large and increasing number of immigrants from the United States, as ascertained from a registration of arrivals, with entries of settlers' goods, at the Custom Houses; the number of these was 20,807, while in 1881 the number was only 15,404, that having been much larger than the returns shown in previous years. Amongst these arrivals in 1882 there were 20,807 Canadian, and 9,011 American.

There are gratifying features and there is reason to believe that they indicate the set of a current arising from two causes. First, the attractiveness of vast areas of rich lands are being opened up for settlement in the Canadian North-West; and, second, the stimulus to manufacturing industry as a result in part of this settlement of new territory.

As respects the so-called exodus at the point of St. Huron, it appears, from Mr. Lowe's evidence, that while it is made by the Bureau of Statistics at Washington of an immigration from Canada of 71,424, the net difference between the in and out, that is, between all passengers going into Canada to all parts of the United States at that point, as compared with the passengers from the United States to all parts in Canada, at the same point, was only 2,442, and the two railways which cross at Port Huron are the only means of communication for through travel, as respects the figures in question, worth any consideration.

The evidence of Professor Macoun furnishes interesting and important information respecting the lignite and coal deposits in the Prairie region and British Columbia. Lignite is found in the neighbourhood of the Souris, and the precious tree coal as the Rocky Mountain and the Peace River. They are particularly favorable situated for mining and transport by the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway. These enormous deposits need no further question of the fuel supply of the North-West. Professor Selwyn further furnished information of interest in relation to the coal supplies on the Pacific Coast in British Columbia. The evidence of Prof. Selwyn indicates the presence of petroleum over a considerable extent of country in the North-West; which is a fact of great importance, as well for the use of petroleum going into that section as for the development of commerce, owing to the extraordinary demand for the product which has for late years sprung up from trans-Pacific countries. Prof. Selwyn also mentioned the presence of salt in the North-West; it is well known to supply for the wants of a large population.

The extent of experience and the painstaking observation of Dr. George M. Dawson, in British Columbia, are of great special interest to his evidence. In relation to agriculture, that Province must be considered a mountainous country, but it is apparent, from the facts elicited, that agricultural operations will play a very important part in its future development. Dr. Dawson estimates that the area of agricultural land, in that Province, east of the Fraser River, is about 1,500 square miles, of which about 1,000 are actually cultivated. There are still large areas in the interior plateau, which cannot so readily be utilized at present, owing to their being of the proposed route of the Canadian Pacific Railway. These lands, at all events, the fact of a sufficient extent of land immediately available, to invite a very considerable immigration, coupled with further large areas well adapted for stock-raising, and which, at a future time, will be valuable for culture. The facts respecting the climate of British Columbia are well established. On the coast, a mild and equable, while on the mainland the continental climatic conditions prevail, there being less humidity, and the degree of cold in proportion to the latitude.

Dr. Dawson also testified to the great value of British Columbia's forests, and her very great fishing and mining interests (including gold, iron and coal of the finest quality).

Dr. Bell, who spent six seasons in examining the shores of Hudson's Bay and the shore adjacent thereto, reports that there is a large tract to the southward and the young men of the country are becoming valuable for agricultural purposes. The lands are good and well wooded, and the fisheries, timber and minerals are sufficiently important to attract settlement. The average length of the season is six months. The geographical relations of Hudson's Bay to the central portions of the Dominion would naturally give it great importance. It should be ascertained that the conditions of navigation can be sufficiently relied upon. This is a fact which makes the fullest information concerning it desirable. The statements of Dr. Bell himself are favorable. He said that the Bay itself was as great as the ocean in the same latitude; the difficulties of navigation, arising principally from the floating ice in the Straits, which, however, are said to be always so open that steamers might pass.

On the north of Lake Superior the explorations of Dr. Bell have been extensive. After leaving the very broken and rugged shore of the lake for some distance, he describes the "fishing of a plateau," about 100 miles long, which, in his opinion, adapted to settlement, the altitude being from 1,300 to 1,500 feet above the sea.

The evidence of Professor Macoun contains information of great interest respecting the botanical characteristics of both the wooded and prairie regions in the northern portions of the Dominion. He stated that the temperature of the five months, May, June, July, August and September, practically settled the question of the productivity of any portion of the country, when the conditions of the land are favorable, quite apart from any meteorological facts in other months in the year. He has made and classified extensive collections of the flora of the Dominion, and states that, with the exception of two or three plants which appear in the Saskatchewan, and therefore, colder region of the North-West, indicate a drier and warmer temperature than Ontario. And with respect to the summer frosts which are known to occur in places, over a large portion of the continent of the North-West, he held that the conditions of their occurrence would scarcely be called climatic, and had little relation to the height of the land; their presence being found in wet and swampy localities, the effect of the drainage of which, would be ameliorated, and probably a perfect cure.

On the governing natural principles being apparently the same as that by which refrigeration is caused in hot countries, by wrapping bottles in wet cloths; and with regard to spring frosts, which so frequently destroy fruit trees, Professor Macoun stated that they caused much more damage in the United States than in Canada.

Mr. Macoun did not think that the apple and pear, as grown on our present soils in the North-West, would be likely generally to succeed, but he pointed out the conditions of acclimating from which success would likely come. What are called the Salt Lands in the North-West, Mr. Macoun thought would ultimately be found the most valuable, but he did not find any conditions in which the supposed aridity of the southern portions of the Territory would prevent the growth of crops, but there were traces where the unfavorable condition of the soil would.

At the close of his evidence, Mr. Macoun incidentally furnished the Committee with some valuable information respecting the fish supply of the North-West; it appears to be beyond doubt that the fish supply will be found to be, to a very considerable extent, available for a not unimportant portion of the food of the population.

JACQUES CARTIER ELECTION.

Mr. Moussaux, the Premier of Quebec, has been re-elected to the Provincial Legislature for the County of Jacques Cartier, by a majority of 78 over the Ostor candidate Desrosiers. The victory is a notable one, as the whole of the opposition strength was concentrated against Mr. Moussaux, and the constituency is a very close one.

Two Sides to a Story.

To the Editor of the Intelligence.

Sir—The public are so well aware of the mode in which T. S. Corman treats his enemies, that they hardly need any further proof of his attack on my character in last night's Ontario, and it is hardly a credit for a man to recognize and answer the vile attacks he has made upon himself with the public. I have to make myself. I had written an agreement with Thomas Corman, which he broke, and consequently I am in a bad way. I am entitled to pay him the consideration of $81 I am indebted to him for orders which I had to take on account of the payment of my salary, and as to the merchant up town I am entirely ignorant of. Thanking you for the valuable space I consider wasted in answering such vile attacks.

I am, dear sir, respectfully yours,

C. ARNOLD DAY,

Bridgegator Correspondence.

BRIDGEWATER, SEPT. 23, 1883.

The village has been in a state of gloom. Death at this time is a solemn thing, but when the young men of the country are killed away, it causes feelings of deep sadness to arise in the hearts of those who would probably hardly feel the death of a neighbor who died after a long illness. We have to lament the sudden death of Dr. Johnson, a young man of great promise, who was fast rising in his profession, and who, by his gentle manner and courteous behavior, endeared himself to all. He was attacked with malaria fever in the first instance, and some kind of internal inflammation set in, and although he was attended by two medical men, he died suddenly on Saturday morning. Every one who was taken by surprise, for he was walking around the Sunday before. His friends were telegraphed for, and the body was taken from here on Sunday, after a funeral service, to be buried alongside his father in the cemetery at Bridgewater. Every one here sympathizes with the friends in their sad and sudden bereavement.

Yesterday a man of Mr. Sedore, living near Flinton, got playing with some dynamite caps, when one exploded, blowing off the tip of his finger, tearing the flesh of another, and otherwise severely injuring the hand. Dr. T. Webb, has the case in hand.

Yesterday we had a heavy rain storm, which was much needed. Everything was dried up, wells were giving out, and the river so low that the mills could not work, but it will require much more rain yet before the river is the requisite height.

The weather has turned very dry; business is good, the merchants have no cause to complain.

Mr. Roberts has moved into his new store. It is not quite finished yet, but when it is completed it will be a handsome addition and an ornament to the village.

The so-called London and Ottawa Railroad still remains as it was last year, and whether it ever will ever be a railroad that goes to Toronto and Ottawa, as its name implies, is exceedingly doubtful. A company that would be seven miles of line in its idle way here have offered to guarantee their business enough to at least pay working expenses, just because they won't meet the paltry expense of building a line, which is scarcely likely to prove the "fire eaters" they made themselves out to be when they first began to build the line to reach the Ontario and Quebec R.R. out of the pocket of the O. & Q. R.R. were not worth a cent. Their line will be completed soon, and as it is three miles nearer than Madoc that will be our outfit.

League Meeting Prevented by Organism.

Dundas, Sept. 25.

Thomas Power, O'Connor and Mr. Smith, members of Parliament, visited Appleton market to day for the purpose of holding a political meeting. They were unable to speak, as the Organism took possession of the place and compelled them to leave within five minutes. The Organism held a meeting in the principal street. Shouts of "No Home Rule" were raised and cheers for the Queen given. The anti-union for the intention of keeping possession of the town until O'Connor Power and Smith withdrew, and delayed they would remain all night to prevent the Parliamentarians erecting a platform. Three thousand Organism will parade to-morrow, and afterwards hold an anti-Parliament meeting. Orange bands played throughout the night. Great excitement prevailed. A troop of lanterns, 100 lanterns, and 200 police have been drafted to Dunsannon.

Sporting Notes.

A team of Philadelphia amateur players will visit England next summer to play a series of matches with the college, public school, and the most prominent local organizations. The team will leave in June and remain abroad two months.

PARLIAMENT, Sept. 26.—The vote of the House of Commons, on the motion of Mr. Chamberlain, for the extension of the franchise to the working classes, was 101 to 85. The motion was carried.

Some Great Volcanic Eruptions.

Java, with its sixteen active and numerous active volcanoes, is said to be the most destructive to human life of any island in the world. The last eruption of Krakatau has been in a state of eruption for some weeks, and last night the activity might have been such as to have caused the eruption of Krakatau to be a matter of some importance. In 1872, for example, the volcano

Krakatau, in the southwest part of the island, threw out such an immense quantity of lava that it was a matter of some importance. In

THE INTELLIGENCER.

BEHAVIOR, FRIDAY, SEPT. 28.

THE LARGEST YET.

From the Ottawa correspondence of the Mail we learn that the accounts for the first year ended June 30th have just been made up, and the result is as follows: Receipts, $38,888.33; expenditure, $28,800.22; surplus, $7,088.10. This is the largest surplus ever had in one year since Confederation. The surplus for 1881-82 was $6,310.00. In neither case does the surplus include the proceeds from land sales in the Northwest. This is a most satisfactory exhibit, the expenditure being less than Sir Leonard in the budget speech estimated, and the receipts being greater.

It is not probable that the surplus for the current year will be so large, as recent reductions in the tariff will have their full effect during the year. Moreover, importations in some lines of goods have fallen off, partly because of a conservative feeling on the part of buyers and partly owing to the fact that some lines of manufacturers have been so stimulated by the N. P. that the home manufacturers can supply the home market.

THE CAREY MURDER.

An attempt is being made to further blacken the character of Jason Carey, the informer, with the object of securing public sympathy for the man O'Donnell who has assassinated him, and thus securing money for the murderer's defence. In pursuance of these tactics we have the following odd dispatch:

LONDON, Sept. 26.—An Irish workman, of Birmingham, whose name is withheld for the present by the authorities, stated that in 1867 he saw James Carey shoot and kill Constable Macneil in that city. He said directly opposite the scene of the murder and witnessed the whole from the window of a house.

He, however, of Irish vengeance that he gave no information to the police.

He claims that the only eye, one witness, and a clause named Wickes can confirm his story.

That Carey was a bad man—a disgrace to humanity—there can be no doubt; but he had satisfied the law, and did not desert with any individual, still less with the emissary of a traitorous and murderous organization, to take the life which the law had spared.

The disclosure made in the telegram above quoted, with the object which we have above stated, places the Fenians in a worse light than ever before. It is to be hoped that the "Irish workman" will be dealt with as he deserves, as to O'Donnell he will have a fair trial, but the evidence already taken leaves no doubt what the result will be in his case.

EDITORIAL REBUTALS.

The English Liberator are evidently as hypocritical and corrupt as are their sympathizers of the Grit party in Canada. From a recent article in an English publication of 1881 we learn that the original 450 members of the present House of Commons were found by Royal Commissioners to have been returned by corrupt practices and the issue of their writs of election suspended. Nine of these were Liberals and 3 Conservatives. Three corrupt Liberals to every corrupt Conservative at England. The proportion in Canada is greater, probably, not less than ten corrupt Grits to every corrupt Conservative.

The London Advertiser has been attempting to try in its columns, Mr. Stephens, the Returning Officer for Bothwell, at the Dominion election last year for alleged unfairness in the disposition of his duties. Considering that Mr. David Mills, the editor of the Advertiser, was the unsuccessful candidate in Bothwell, he can hardly claim that he attempts to try Mr. Stephens through the columns of the journal which he controls is fair to the defendant. If Mr. Mills believes that he has a good case, why does he not go into a court where both sides can be heard and where decision would be given by judges who are supposed to be disinterested and who are learned in the law? Mr. Mills' failure to add this course could lead to one conclusion, and that is that he knows his case is a bad one.

The Massachusetts Democrats have nominated General Butler as their candidate for the Governorship, it is quite probable that he will be elected, especially as he has so strong a card in the Tewksbury Alma Mater village which he exposed. In accepting the nomination General Butler reviewed what the Tewksbury investigation had developed according to his witnesses, and asked, "Would the people of Massachusetts say this was decent treatment of men who, but for their patriotism and disease which took them to Tewksbury, might have been as good as any in the Convention." "It may be," he said, "your misfortune to outlive your wife, your children, and relatives, and you may have
